

LITTLE LADY OH, stakes winner of $119,354.93, was inducted into the ApHC Racing Hall of Fame in 2004. David P. Kosoff bred Quarter Horse mare Little Ohs to race champion and medallion-producing Appaloosa stallion Deep South to produce Little Lady Oh in 1980. Sold as a yearling to Bar T Ranch in Florida, Little Lady Oh raced in 1982 and 1983, and became the first Appaloosa racehorse to earn more than $100,000 as a 2-year-old.

During her racing career, Little Lady Oh had 16 wins and one place in 18 starts. With a speed index of 92, the mare's wins included the Texas and Oklahoma futurities as a 2-year-old. As a 3-year-old, Little Lady Oh won the Florida, Gold Coast, and Texas Derbies and the Cricket Bars Maturity. She earned a bronze medallion in 1982 and a bronze superior achievement certificate in 1983 in addition to 2-year-old sprint filly, supreme champion 2-year-old, 3-year-old filly, and supreme champion 3-year-old titles.

Not only did Little Lady Oh succeed in racing, she passed her talents on to her foals. She produced 16 ApHC-registered foals, 12 of which were starters that earned over $83,000 at the track. Eight of her foals were race winners, with four earning stakes wins, seven receiving Registers of Merit (ROMs), and three receiving regional championship awards. In addition, her 2003 foal Takin The Cash (by Darkelly, AQHA) won over $25,000 at the track and was named champion 2-year-old sprint colt champion in 2005.

Little Lady Oh's final owner was Kevin Hullinger of Mona, Utah. Kevin and his wife Jeannie decided to purchase "Little Lady" because she was older – 21 at the time – and they wanted to provide a good home for her. "She was a very gracious lady with a heart of gold and it was our great fortune to have been part of her life," Jeannie says.

Little Lady Oh passed away on March 23, 2004.
