KENDALITE N ROSES

KENDALITE N ROSES was a halter superstar. Being shown from the time she was a weanling, she was unstoppable. To this day, "Roses" is the all-time leader of World and National Championships at halter. She claimed five National Championships and three World Championships in Non-Pro Aged Mares, two Youth World Championships and one Reserve Youth World Championship in Senior Mares, Three & Over, one Youth World Championship in Youth Aged Mares, one National Championship and one World Championship in Broodmares, three National Championships and three World Championships in Aged Mares, a National Championship and World Championship in Three-Year-Old Mares, a National and World Championship in Two-Year-Old Mares, and a World Championship in Yearling Fillies.

Kendalite N Roses won seven of her fourteen abovementioned world championship titles in a row. Furthermore, she claimed the title of Reserve Champion Mare at the 46th and 52nd National Appaloosa Championship Shows. She was crowned Grand Champion Mare at the 47th, 48th, 49th and 50th National Championship Appaloosa Shows. Roses competed at several open shows winning the Grand Champion Mare title an awe-inspiring 70 times, and the Reserve Champion mare 12 times. Kendalite N Roses had countless first place rankings and top ten standings throughout her illustrious career.

Having passed away in August of 2004, Roses' legacy continues through her offspring. She produced six foals during her lifetime. Her foal Dreaming Of Roses made a career in the show ring, earning four bronze medallions in halter classes. The 2009 bay stallion, The Secret, is Roses' most well known foal. The Secret is currently one of the leading halter sires in the Appaloosa industry with 167 registered foals having accumulated 5,776 halter points, 204.5 performance points and 87 ROM's. The Secret earned a Bronze Production Plaque in 2007 and a Bronze Superior Production Plaque in 2013.

Kendalite N Roses was a 1991 mare was by Kendalls Reward and out of Classical Rose (QH). She was bred by Steven and Kristi Goldberg of Waco, Texas, and last owned by Char-O-Lot Ranch of Myakka City, Florida. During her lifetime she accumulated a total of 244 points and earned 14 bronze medallions. Her family at Char-O-Lot Ranch described Kendalite N Roses as, "a star who represented the beauty of the Appaloosa breed wherever she went." During her time Kendalite N Roses took the halter world by storm, changed the industry forever and secured herself a well-deserved spot in the ApHC Hall of Fame.
