1986 Mare

The ApHC Hall of Fame welcomes 1986 mare Ima Jo's Doll, first non-Quarter-Horse winner of the National Reined Cow Horse Association's Snaffle Bit Futurity Open Championship in 1989 under the ridership of Carl Gould. Bred by B.J. Ellard of Texas (Ima Doc O'Lena x Quanah's Leo Girl), and last owned by Jim Doblak of Alberta, Canada, Ima Jo's Doll passed in December 2015.

During her career, Ima Jo's Doll earned $7,810 in the National Cutting Horse Association. As a producer, four of her eight foals became performance point earners. One, Have A Drink On Me, had lifetime earnings of more than $44,400 in addition to reining and cow horse titles. Ima Bootscootin Lena was an ApHC world champion in Junior Working Cow Horse and was the 2007 Canadian Supreme Open Snaffle Bit Futurity Champion.

Ima Jo's Doll's 1989 win shocked the America's Horse TV crew that was on hand to spotlight the winner, as they expected the winner to be an AQHA horse. Carl and Doll's achievement earned him a place in the NRCHA's Hall of Fame.
