

2000 Mare

Lady Of The Hunt

man's Straw Man, and her sire The Hunter. She joins the Hall by automatic induction based on the success of her foals.

Before her broodmare career, Lady Of The Hunt won a Bronze Medallion in Hunter In Hand and a Silver Medallion in Three-Year-Old Snaffle Bit Hunter Under Saddle, racked up nearly 160 performance points, three Registers of Merit, a Superior Event, and three Year-End Top-Tens.

Eight of her 11 foals have amassed, cumulatively, more than 500 points and each of the eight has earned both performance and halter points. They have also accrued 11 Registers of Merit, two Halter Superior Events, Two Club Champions, six Bronze Medallions, and three Silver Medallions.

Lady Of The Hunt's five qualifying Bronze Medallion-earning foals were sired by four different stallions and are as follows: Renaissance Huntsman (2006 by Renaissance Man), Halfway Dignified (2007 by Always Dignified), Kruzing For The Ladys (2011 by The Krymsun Kruzer), The Blue Huntress (2012 by Spot My Blue Boy), and Bue Boys Fair Lady (2016 by Spot My Blue Boy).

Lady Of The Hunt was bred by Jennilyn Evans of Valley View, Texas, and currently owned by Rebecca Hoga of Weatherford, Texas.

2

2018 Appaloosa Horse Club Hall of Fame inductee Lady Of The Hunt is a 2000 chestnut mare by The Hunter and out of Color My Dreams. She descends from Hall of Fame greats Apache Double, Hayes' Roman Cloud, Ro-