

All About The Blue

Appaloosa Horse Club Hall Of Fame

Bred by Rebeca M. Hogan of Weatherford, Texas, and born in 2015, All About The Blue is sired by Spot My Blue Boy (Skys Blue Boy (QH) x CBH Freckled Annie) and out of the Quarter Horse mare All About It (Allocate Your Assets (QH) x Jazzy Details (QH)). With nine Silver Medallions, he enters the ApHC Hall of Fame on an automatic induction.

Throughout his show career he has earned 81.5 lifetime points in Open and Non-Pro. In addition to his Silver Medallions, he has also earned two Open Registers of Merit, two Non-Pro Registers of Merit, and seven Bronze Medallions. He attended his first National Show and won his first National Championship title in 2016 in Hunter in Hand, Yearling Geldings in the hand of Anthony Leier. Since then, he has won an impressive 33 World and National Championships, four Reserve World and National Champion titles, seven Top Fives, and three Top Tens.

He was purchased as a weanling by Wendy Shuknecht of Weatherford, Texas, who sold him to Toni Sandridge of Minerva, Ohio, before Beck

Farms of Stockton, California, purchased him in 2018. He continues to be shown at the time of this writing by members of the Beck Family in Non-Pro classes, and by Kristin Pokluda and Heather Runyon in Open. Congratulations to All About The Blue and all of his connections on earning a well-deserved place in the ApHC Hall of Fame.
