

PAINT This KITTY

Appaloosa Horse Club
Hall Of Fame

Foaled in 2010, Paint This Kitty was sired by PYC Paint Your Wagon (AQHA), out of R MS Kitty by Panther Mountain (AQHA) and out of the ApHC Hall of Fame mare and all-time Leading Dam by Money Earned, Perfect Intention. Paint This Kitty was foaled in Oklahoma, and was both bred and owned by Jeff Adams. She had a three-season career from 2012—2014, with lifetime earnings of $41,545 in 12 starts (3-3-1). She won the 2014 Colors of the Wind Paint & Appaloosa Stake and was third in the 2012 Cricket Bars Futurity.

Beyond her years competing on the track, Paint This Kitty's biggest impact has been in the breeding barn. She has nine registered foals including six starters that have impressive cumulative earnings of $287,806 to date. Additionally, her foals have won five medallions, one stakes win, four registers of merit, and five regional championships.

Notable foals include Paint Your Lips, a 2018 mare sired by He's Relentless (AQHA) that was a regional champion, earned a register of merit, and a bronze medallion. Paint Your Lips was named both Champion Three-Year-Old Mare and was the 2021 Horse of The Year. Adding to Paint This Kitty's legacy most recently is R Cowgirl. Sired by Flying Cowboy 123 (AQHA) and foaled in 2021, in her two-year-old year R Cowgirl earned an impressive $167,185 in 7 outs (6-0-1), was a regional champion, earned a register of merit with a 98-speed index, and earned a bronze medallion. R Cowgirl was also named the 2023 Horse of The Year, the 2023 Supreme Champion Two-Year-Old, and the Champion Two-Year-Old Filly.

Paint This Kitty earned a place in the Appaloosa Horse Club Hall of Fame due to the impact her foals have had and will continue to have on the racing industry. Congratulations Paint This Kitty on your well-deserved induction to the ApHC. Hall of Fame for owner/breeder Jeff Adams!
