APPALOOSA HORSE CLUB EST. 1938
The International Breed Registry for Appaloosa Horses

Appaloosa Horse Club Announces Results of 2026 Membership Vote

Oklahoma City, Oklahoma — Results of the Appaloosa Horse Club (ApHC) 2026 Membership Vote were finalized Nov. 1, 2026.

This year's ballot included elections for the ApHC Board of Directors and a proposal to change the organization's fiscal year to align with the calendar year, Jan. 1 through Dec. 31.

Board members were elected to represent each of the ApHC's six territories and will begin their four-year terms of service Jan. 1, 2027. The newly elected directors are:

- Lisa Feldner – Territory I
- David Beck – Territory II
- Jordan Kelley – Territory III
- David Parlier – Territory IV
- Kevin Griner – Territory V
- Gretchen Jackson – Territory VI

The membership also approved a proposal to change the ApHC fiscal year to Jan. 1 through Dec. 31, with 98.02% of votes cast in favor.

The Appaloosa Horse Club extends its sincere appreciation to all members who participated in this year's membership vote. The Club also congratulates its newly elected Board of Directors and looks forward to their leadership and service to the ApHC and the Appaloosa breed.

About the Appaloosa Horse Club
Established in 1938, the Appaloosa Horse Club (ApHC) is dedicated to preserving, promoting and enhancing the Appaloosa breed. Since its founding, the ApHC has registered more than 700,000 Appaloosas, a breed recognized for its distinctive coat patterns, intelligence and even temperament.

Known for their versatility, Appaloosas excel in a wide range of disciplines, including showing, racing and endurance riding, and are valued as dependable family horses. The ApHC is an international breed registry headquartered in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, widely recognized as the "Horse Show Capital of the World."