GETTING TO KNOW

Ken Johnson – Dahinda, IL ApHC BOD Member

If someone wrote a biography about you, what do you think the title should be?

Never be afraid to speak your mind: One man's lifetime of telling it the way he sees it

What did you last Google?

Bold Ruler thoroughbred. He was the sire of Secretariat -- my favorite horse -- and 1957 Horse of the Year. I've spent a lot of time recently researching old race horse pedigrees.

What historical event would you most like to have witnessed?

The Lincoln-Douglas debate on October 7, 1858 at Knox College, where I graduated, in my hometown of Galesburg, Illinois. It was truly a momentous time in history.

What would you love to invent?

A time machine to go back and see that debate, along with the Gettysburg Address.

Do you have a favorite old t-shirt? Describe it.

It's a faded black Harley-Davidson t-shirt from Anchorage, Alaska. It has a bald eagle on the front and a picture of Mt. McKinley on the back. It reminds me of the best trip that I ever took.

What's your favorite website?

It's a toss-up between ESPN and Bleacher Report. For news, I still go to the Washington Post's website.

The Washington Post

Who is your real life hero?

John Wayne. What? You say that dates me? "Whoa, take 'er easy there, Pilgram."

Lorem Ipsum

What do you listen to on the radio while driving down the road to a horse show?

At the barn, it is country all day, every day. On the road, I'm rockin' with the Doobie Brothers, BTO, The Doors, The Eagles and Fleetwood Mac.

How do you like to relax?

Show horses! All day, every day if I could!!!

If you could sit on a bench and chat for 1 hour with any person, who would it be ?

Abraham Lincoln, America's greatest president. Sure, I say that in part because I'm a "homie" but what would our country look like today without this wisdom, courage and steady hand. Interestingly, for 5 years while working in Washington, D.C. the back wall of my office butted up against Ford's Theatre and my windows peered down on the Petersen House on 10th Street, where Mr. Lincoln died on April 15, 1865. Ohhh...the conversations we had late at night.

TODAY'S CLASS TIPS -

Reining – presented by Sandy Jirkvosky – Gainesville, TX

- Know your pattern
- Find your center on each circle
- Ride the horse you have today - don't overshadow!
- Ride at least three strides past your marker
- Know your penalties. Is it better to do a simple change or miss your lead for a quarter of a circle?
- Think correct first, then degree of difficulty and then quality of maneuvers
- The rulebook is your answer to all questions. Know your rules
