MOVE IN DAY -

Joe Carter - Ontario, Canada

How would you spend your perfect day?

My perfect day was in 1965 on February 18th when I went down to the hospital and met my daughter for the first time. Then coming home with her and deciding on a name, Patti. My perfect day would be being able to experience that again - one of the happiest of my life.

What historical event would you most like to have witnessed?

I wish I could have been there when the Appaloosa Horse Club and American Quarter Horse Association was formed. It would have been nice to visit with the group of founders and ranchers and be part of the discussions that started those associations.

If you could sit on a park bench and chat for an hour with anyone, who would you pick?

I would visit with Keri LeForce. She is very smart and easy to talk, and totally dedicated to the Appaloosa Horse Club.

Who is your real life hero?

Bill Brewer. He served as the Executive Vice President of AQHA for many years. He is a very smart man, my good friend and my hero.

If you could trade lives with anyone for a day, who would it be & why?

I would trade places with Robert Duvall (Gus from Lonesome Dove). He was outstanding in Lonesome Dove and he has such a talent for acting.

Who is the one celebrity you would want to be friends with?

Tom Brady!

What's one funny incident that stands out in your mind that you experienced when judging a horse show?

Well I wasn't judging, but in 1975, I was showing at the Georgetown Fair in a Georgetown, Ontario. I was showing a horse named Wonder Seeker, who ended up being my first Supreme Champion. The Trail class was the last class of the day and Wonder Seeker was still back at the trailer, so I rode back to switch horses. Back then there wasn't a pattern provided for the Trail, rather the judge told you which obstacles to complete in what order. I got back to the ring just as the judge was telling everyone what they were going to do, and they called out that I was the first horse to go on Wonder Seeker. I got through all the obstacles and rode up to a 45-gallon barrel with both ends cut out. The judge told us we had to dismount, ground tie and crawl through the barrel. When I got out the other end of the barrel I knew I had been had! The whole crowd was clapping and laughing! Some friends told the judge about the prank and the judge went along with it - I ended up winning the class!

What would you like to be known for?

I would like to be known as a devoted family man, for living as my word is my law and for always being ready to help others- especially fellow judges.

TODAY'S CLASS TIPS -

Roping -

presented by Roger Johnson, Fort Atkinson, WI

- Look at your target. Your rope goes where you look
- Wear a glove
- Swing your rope on the ground before you rope that day
- Warm your horse up and keep him legged up
- Score your horse as much as you rope
- Know the rules

*We sure miss you here, Roger!
Speedy recovery, my friend!*
