What did you want to be when you were 10 years old?
A funeral director - even in my teens.

What was the first movie that you saw in the movie theaters?

Disney's Old Yeller. Sad movie but left an impression nothing is forever.

Best comfort food?

Any kind of pie or cookie.

Best movie?

Disney's The Horse in a Grey Flannel Suit. I loved it as a child.

Best tv show?

I'm a game show guy. I lose interest in long, drawn out shows. Always think to many other things I should be doing than sitting in front of a tv.

The Etch-A-Sketch made it's debut in 1960. Did you have one?

Never had one, however, I did play with my older sister's.

What is your most treasured possession?

Family and memories. Something that can never be taken away.

What is one thing you'd like to cross off your bucket list in 2024?

To have time to sit back and reflect on life instead of being on the go all the time.

Who is the one celebrity/athlete you would want to be friends with?

HOFer Tom Seaver, New York Met pitcher when I was a child.

If you could sit on a bench and chat for one hour with any person, who would it be (living or deceased)?

My Mom. We spoke everyday. To hear her voice and words of encouragement she always gave me, even as an adult.
