APHC HALL OF FAME AWARD FOR HORSES

Candidates for this award may be nominated by ApHC members. The candidate must have had great and favorable impact on the Appaloosa industry, received breeding, regional, and/or national distinction, or have rendered outstanding performance. Candidates must be ApHC registered and deceased before they can be nominated for the ApHC Hall of Fame.

PROCEDURE AND PRESENTATION OF AWARD

Nominations will be submitted to the ApHC and reviewed by the Hall of Fame Committee consisting of the ApHC CEO, the ApHC Board President, and 5 ApHC members in good standing. Concluding the review, the ApHC Board of Directors will vote to accept or reject the Hall of Fame Committee recommendation(s). Inductees will then be honored at the annual awards banquet. Accepted candidates will be enshrined into the ApHC at a National event where such privilege can be duly noted and addressed by the Board of Directors and the membership.

NOMINATION APPLICATION

Please use this application to nominate an Appaloosa horse that has contributed to the Appaloosa Horse Club or the Appaloosa industry through breeding, showing, racing, distance riding, or other achievements. To assist the Board of Directors in evaluating the candidates, please provide as much detailed information as possible. Include significant historical data, owner/trainer information, and any other pertinent data. Nomination materials may also include articles from print media, photographs, and personal statements and/or recommendations relating to the nominee.
