

AUGUST is a great time to take stock of your feed! Order your hay now and have it delivered so you're prepared for winter! A small amount of grain can help provide warmth and energy horses need to get through the winter.

“Fiber from grass hay should form the bulk of a horse’s diet.” says Hap P. Loosa. “ A diet of too much grain can cause stomach aches in horses and may lead to colic.”